

Thank you for calling Local 1262's Information Hotline. This is the latest update from President Harvey Whille as of Tuesday, October 31, 2023 and contains one message. This hotline – as well as other important updates and information for our members -- can also be found on our web site at www.ufcw1262.org.

Professionals from the New York State Rapid Response Team will be on-site in the Albany Capital Area ShopRite stores to assist Local 1262 members in their job search and other related issues.

Rapid Response Team members will be on-site on Thursday, November 16 at 9 a.m. in the Colonie ShopRite and at 1 p.m. in the Slingerlands ShopRite.

Team members will be on-site on Friday, November 17 in the Albany ShopRite at 9 a.m. and at the Niskayuna ShopRite at 1 p.m.

Local 1262 has spoken to management in the stores who have agreed to accommodate our members during their shifts if necessary.

Local 1262 Union Representatives will also be on-site during these meetings.

“Local 1262 continues to do whatever we can to assist our members during this difficult time,” said President Harvey Whille, adding that the Local will be meeting with the company to discuss Effects Bargaining which includes items such as severance pay and health and welfare benefits.

“These dedicated members deserve to be treated fairly and with respect,” he added. “And we are committed to seeing that they receive what is owed to them.”

Local 1262 will continue to work with these members on a daily basis to assist them in the transition. Please continue to check this hotline for updates on this situation.

Local 1262 has also set up a dedicated web page for our Albany Area members containing updates, contact information for various programs and links to resources to assist in the transition. These resources can be accessed at www.ufcw1262.org.

Members with questions can call their Union Representative Christopher Molinaro at 1-800-526-7814.

That concludes this hotline. Thank you for calling Local 1262.
